ANACONDA PIANO TEACHER ESTABLISHES SCHOLARSHIP FUND AT UM MISSOULA --

Evelyn Lindblad Folland, a piano teacher in Anaconda, has set up a $10,000 endowment with the University of Montana Foundation for music scholarships at UM.

The fund will provide an annual scholarship of $500 to a junior majoring in music. The award will be based on musical potential, achievement and dedication, and pianists will be given priority.

"Not only will this scholarship assist talented pianists in their musical growth," says William Manning, chair of UM's music department, "but it will recognize Mrs. Folland for the excellent work she has done over the years in providing inspiration and instruction to countless young pianists."

Eleven of Folland's students over the years have placed first in the Montana State Music Teachers' Association annual competition. Four have been runners-up in Northwest contests, and one former student now attends the Eastman School of Music.

Although the Butte native never attended UM, she's had a continuing rapport with the music faculty on campus. She's also recommended attending UM to many of her students.

Contributions to the Evelyn Lindblad Folland Fund may be sent to the UM Foundation, P.O. Box 7159, Missoula, MT 59807.
